General Description:

Reliance Foundry 8402-43BA decorative bollards are made in America, adhering to the Buy America and Buy American Acts prerequisites. They are produced from cast iron and layered with circular top castings for visual flair. For weathering protection, these bollards are finished with black powder coating. These tough and secure bollards can be used as fixed, stand-alone bollards, or to cover and beautify impact-resistant security posts. Alternatively, they can be made removable utilizing premium removable mountings (please contact us for more details about removable bollards).
